

R Actions

Did you know?

The 3 R's in the environment have been around a long time but many people are forgetting to follow them.

Can you complete the sentences with the correct 'R' action. Afterwards, think about which of the R's you might do at home.

recycled

reused

reduced

recycle

reuse

reduce

Our scrap paper tray in the classroom helps us to paper.

When we go shopping we don't buy vegetables packed in plastic. This helps us our waste.

I put my plastic bottles in my bin so they can come back as a football shirt.

I am a drinks can that has been taken to a factory and made into a part for a new car. I have been

I made a smoothie with some fruit that had gone soft instead of throwing it out. I have the waste that goes in my bin.

I have learnt to sew. I can now repair my clothes instead of throwing them away to help me my waste.

I helped some friends to set up a toy swap after school. All the toys went to new families and were

I some old wood to make a bird table.

I didn't know that potato peelings and banana skins can be into compost.

